Hon. Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

This paper is a response to an Office action mailed October 20, 2004.

No changes are being made in the specification and the section of a response that ordinarily deals with such changes is omitted from this paper.

Some of the original claims are being amended herein to overcome objections set forth in the Office action or to correct grammatical improprieties. The amendments are not being submitted for the purpose of overcoming prior art since the claims already define patentable subject matter over the art of record.
